POWER TO THE LITTLE PEOPLE NOMINATED FOR Juno 2011 / Indies 2011 / IMA 2011

Sold-Out Drake Residency

“My kids love music. They love dancing. And if anyone can get kids dancing, it’s the Monkey Bunch...Power to the Little People, is ridiculously well-produced—zany enough for the kids, with the inventiveness required to also charm adults.”
Eye Weekly

Toronto, ON - February 25 2011 - Just as expected, the kids rushed the stage and went BANANAS for The Monkey Bunch. For the month of February children and parents came in droves as they filled the Drake during the three sold out residency shows. If you got turned away at the door the group has three upcoming dates in the Toronto area on February 27th, March 26th and May 1st (details listed below). The Monkey Bunch are also bursting with excitement from their nominations that are piling high on their drum kit.

First they kicked off February with a Juno nomination for Children's Album of the Year - up next the 2011 Indies where they have been nominated for Children's Artist/Group of the Year. And then to top it all off they have been recognized in the US with their Independent Music Awards nomination for Children's Music Album of the Year. All of the awards will be handed out in March and the group is over the moon with the recognition for their sophomore album Power to the Little People.

The album features performances by: Danny Michel, Adam Gontier (Three Days Grace), Ed Sahely, Teresa Pavlinek (Rick Mercer Report), Lori Cullen, Kevin Fox and Jian Ghomeshi and the Ryerson Community School. Produced by Shoshana and Maury and mixed by Juno nominated Michael Philip Wojewoda (BNL, Anvil).

“Their music is funky and enticing, plus they have great vocals to boot.
These guys are comedic geniuses.”
