

THE MONKEY BUNCH

POWER TO THE LITTLE PEOPLE! The Monkey Bunch is creating an army of children who will be the future heroes of the world. Small people who will be empowered to be responsible and active in saving themselves, the planet – and even the scoundrels that don't care about children, animals and the big ole earth we all share.

A hero doesn't need a cape. Just the passion and confidence to fight the real fights. We, at Monkey Bunch Headquarters, are fighting the battle at festivals, the stage and the Internet. For that is where our soldiers reside. Then they, in turn, will take the message out to the streets, the grocery stores, the fields, the oceans, the sandboxes, the schools and one day... the voting booths! Because...
